

Cardiac Failure Risk Monitor

WHAT System developed to improve the patients' death and mortality rate with cardiac failure by continuous extra-hospital monitoring of arrhythmia risk and valuation of the disease progress.

HOW Creating and evaluating guided and personalized walking sessions by the professional specialist, based on the continuous monitorization of biomedical parameters looking for the tracking of the patient and also including the necessary information to keep the motivation and the sensation of supporting and self-confidence.

WHO Patients with diagnosticated cardiac failure, with one previous hospitalization at least and classified as class I, II or III due to the NYHA. Medical professional specialists from the Cardiac Failure Unit of Hospitalary Centers and Insurance Companies.

Co-financed project by EU VI Framework Program